e-mail office@waterloominorhockey.com website www.waterloominorhockey.com

Timekeepers must be a minimum fourteen (14) years of age to officiate in WMHA or WGMHA games. Upon acceptance, new timekeepers will be required to successfully complete a certification program.

This position requires considerable commitment by the timekeeper and, if under (18) eighteen years of age, their parents/guardians. This includes punctuality, attendance at assignments and meetings, procedures, recordkeeping, organization, personal skills, good conduct, rules knowledge, timing device operation, and game sheet accuracy.

Arenas can be cold, shifts may be long and spectators and participants can be emotional. Tournaments may require assignments during some days. Shifts can start in the morning, others end late at night.

Briefly describe other commitments (i.e. work, school, other sports, clubs) you are involved in that will affect your availability for timekeeping WMHA and WGMHA games.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

I acknowledge that as an official for WMHA or WGMHA games, I am not an "employee" of WMHA or WGMHA, but I provide my services on a freelance basis.

I agree to adhere to WMHA, ALLIANCE Hockey, WGMHA and OWHA policies and accept that disciplinary action may be imposed for failing to follow policies. Disciplinary action may include fines, suspension and/or dismissal.

Injury insurance is provided by Hockey Canada, not WMHA or WGMHA. I understand that HC injury insurance is supplemental insurance for costs that exceed what is covered by OHIP and your personal insurance policies.

I agree that WMHA, WGMHA, its Board of Directors, Officiating Committee or Referee/Timekeeper Assigner will not be financially responsible for injuries incurred while officiating in games assigned by WMHA or WGMHA.

I understand that a condition of receiving assignments is my availability and I am required to make my services available for a reasonable amount of time each month when WMHA or WGMHA games are taking place.

I understand that I may be required to officiate games early Saturday/Sunday mornings (as early as 7:00 am) on a regular basis and my refusal to do such games may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

I understand that games assigned to me during times that I declared as "available" and/or games accepted by me are my responsibility. I accept that excessive cancellations of my assignments may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Submission of an application does NOT guarantee a timekeeping position with WMHA or WGMHA. Acceptance of new timekeepers is also dependent on successful completion of a certification program. Applications for Timekeepers will be accepted until August 27, 2017
