TIMBER WOLVES CRUSH CAZENOVIA CHIEFS IN GAME 2 IN MOTOWN!

It was another Canada-US classic when the Wolves took to the ice against the Cazenovia Chiefs at Southgate Arena in Michigan. It was a rough affair from the drop of the puck, but the Timber Wolves kept their cool and stayed out of the box. The Timber Wolves got on the board first when Reese Stanley made a beautiful cross ice pass to send Noah Zettler in all alone on the Chiefs goalie. Big Z made a nice fake right and lifted a shot past the bewildered netminder. Matthew Fazzari made a sliding low blocker save to keep the egg on the board in the second and the Timber Wolves D were at their best keeping the Chiefs forwards to the outside and clearing pucks from in front of Fazzari. Ethan Januszkiwicz and Stephen Cresswell kept the Chiefs forwards tied up all game while Liam Read and Aaron Steingart were amazing at keeping the puck in at the Chiefs blueline to keep the offensive pressure on the Chiefs. Aaron Jeffrey and Owen Way provided the offense on the backend, each contributing with a goal. Jeffrey fired a hard, rising wrist shot from the slot off a Carson Gebauer rebound while Owen Way completed a speedy end to end rush with a low glove side goal. The Timber Wolves extended their lead to 4-0 after Cresswell played the puck up the boards out of the Wolves end to Spencer Recoskie, who made a smooth outlet pass to Carson Gebauer. Gebauer made a nice move around the Chiefs defenseman and deked the goalie on a nice fake to slide the puck in the open net. Fazzari made the saves when called upon to earn the shutout in the Timber Wolves 4-0 win!

PLAYER OF THE GAME

Owen Way is a mobile defenseman who uses his speed to patrol the blueline and lead rushes up ice. Owen’s defensive play resembles that of another blueliner, Dion Phaneuf, who Owen models his hockey skills and slapshot after. Wayzee played a defensive gem against the Chiefs, neutralizing the Chiefs forwards and quickly transitioning the puck to the Wolves forwards. Wayzee contributed to the offense with an end to end rushing goal and earned the “Battle Bucket”. Owen credits his speed & endurance to his pre-game ritual of downing banana milkshakes! Owen has attended NHL games in Pittsburgh, Nashville and now Detroit and hopes his parents will ensure he sees live games in every NHL city over the next few years! Owen is a reality TV junkie, watching Storage Wars and Python Hunters whenever he can and aspires to one day star in a reality TV series of his own! Great game Owen!
