

WOLF BLACK ATTACK

Black Attack Bulldoze their Way to 3 points against the Bulldogs & Hawks

The Black Attack rebounded from their Gold games with a total team effort against the West London Hawks on Saturday. The first period went scoreless with neither team mounting much offense. The second period was a different story. The Wolves got on the board when Lukas Marschuetz fired a one-timer rocket from the high slot that was too hot for the London goalie to handle and Aiden Brady was there to bang home the loose puck at the top of the crease. Assists went to Will Maxwell and Matt Buck. The Wolves went ahead by 2 when Dawson Fielding found the mesh on a scramble in the slot. Assists went to Marschuetz and Connor Olsen for the great pass to Fielding in front of the net. Fielding notched his second of the game when Aaron Jeffrey made a tape to tape cross ice pass to Colton Tucker, who centered the puck to Fielding. Fielding found the five hole and put the Wolves ahead by 3 going into the third period.

The Wolves 4th goal was scored by Brady off a Stephen Cresswell point shot rebound after Maxwell won the draw back to the point. The Wolves final goal was a great crash-the-net Black Attack goal by Cameron Young. Assists went to Owen Fenton and Maxwell. The third period saw the D come up big on the PK. With the Wolves down 2 men for almost a full 2 minutes and London's goalie pulled for a 6 on 3 advantage, the Wolves hung on with some great aggressive D and saves from Matthew Fazzari to preserve the 5-0 lead. The game ended with Fazzari making the save on a West London penalty shot to preserve the shutout and the Wolves 5-0 win. Game pucks went to Matt Buck, Will Maxwell and Aiden Brady and the Battle Bucket to Matthew Fazzari. On Sunday the Black Attack hosted the Burlington Bulldogs for their final game before the AA/A split. It was a battle of the goalies as both Spencer Bartels and the Burlington goalie stopped everything thrown their way in the first period. The Wolves forwards managed to solve the Burlington goalie midway through the second period when Owen Fenton fed a pass to Connor Olsen, who ripped a shot from the top of the face-off circle and Aiden Brady crashed the net to bang home the rebound. It was a defensive gem for most of the remainder of the game, with the Wolves forwards back checking and the D playing extremely well, limiting high quality scoring chances. When shots got through, Bartels was there to turn the Bulldogs away. The Wolves remained up by one heading into the last minute of play. They got an unlucky bounce and tip and the puck ended up in the back of the net with 39 seconds to play for a 1-1 draw. Game puck went to Spencer Bartels and the Battle Bucket to Stephen Cresswell.

Player Profile: Aaron Jeffrey

Aaron Jeffrey is the smooth skating, hard-working defenseman who wears #9 for the Black Attack. Aaron fearlessly protects the Black Attack net and goalies and uses his speed and body checks to effectively patrol the Black Attack blue line and intimidate the opposition. Aaron is a huge Philly fan and plays with toughness, grit and determination, just like his favourite player Mike Richards who was unfortunately traded from the Flyers before he could bring a cup to broad street. Although Aaron is known as "Fries" to his teammates, he prefers mashed potatoes, gravy and turkey any day to French Fries for his favourite meal. He likes to finish his meal off with a huge piece of Carrot cake. When Fries isn't playing hockey, he excels at baseball and collecting beer caps (where would he get those from :)? He loves playing NHL 12 on the xbox while listening to some Beatles tunes. Aaron never finishes last at anything - except the handshake line! Great D this weekend Aaron - keep on playing those forwards hard in front of our net!
