

Wolf Black Attack

WOLVES BOUNCED BY BANDITS AND STUNG BY SARNIA

The Black Attack took to home ice on Saturday for a game with the London Bandits. Aaron Jeffrey moved up to the wing to take Aidan Brady's spot until his return from England. The first period was tight checking, with a few good scoring chances by both teams. The second period started off the same way until the Wolves had 3 minutes of defensive zone coverage lapse that resulted in the Bandits scoring 3 quick goals through the middle period. Matt Buck was able to get the Wolves on the board when he rifled home a shot after receiving a nice pass from Ben Hagen and Aaron Jeffries. That is as close as the Wolves would come, losing 3-1.

It was a quick turnaround for the Black Attack as they faced the Sarnia Sting at home early Sunday afternoon. Sarnia got on the board quick when the Sting forward was left alone in front to bang in a centering pass. Sarnia would take a 2 goal lead on a power play, ending the first period with the Wolves down 2-0. The play got rough, with majors given to both teams for boarding and checks to the head. Colin Kim was forced to leave the game after receiving a hit to the head and Colton Tucker was given a major for a boarding call, which put the Wolves down 3 player's midway through the second period. The Wolves fought hard with the short bench but were unable to solve Sarnia's stifling D, ending the game with a 2-0 loss. Next up for the Wolves is the second place Burlington Bulldogs at home on Saturday and a game in London versus the Hawks on Sunday.

Player profile: #7 Ben Hagen

Ben Hagen wears #7 for the Black Attack. He mates call him Bulldozer and you only need to watch him play once to know why. Despite being outsized in most defensive match ups, Bulldozer never backs down from a hit and lays out those opposing forwards with clean hits along the boards. He bangs and crashes his way to defensive supremacy! Not only can Bulldozer hit, but he's got speed too! Ben was at his bulldozing best on Saturday and Sunday, clearing the front of the net and tying up those forwards so Wally could see the puck.

Ben is a grade 6 student at Lexington Public School where he loves the subjects of gym and art. When Ben isn't playing hockey, he likes to participate in Extreme Sports like mountain biking, rip-sticking and long boarding. Its clear Bulldozer's courage on the ice goes a long way off the ice too! Ben spends the rest of his spare time playing COD MW3 while listening to some Pitbull and Gangnam Style. Congrats on 2 great games this weekend Ben!
