

Wolf Black Attack

WOLF PACK HUNTS HAWKS BUT BLINDED BY BULLDOGS

It was a full Wolf Moon on Saturday evening when the Black Attack took on the Burlington Bulldogs on the Wolves home ice. The Bulldogs got on the board midway through the first on a rebound after Matthew Fazzari made the initial toe save on a screen shot from the point. It stayed that way until the second when the Bulldogs broke in on a long 2 on 1 to go ahead 2-0 heading into the third. After the Bulldogs took at 3-0 lead with just over a minute remaining in the game, the Wolves spoiled Burlington's shut out when Aaron Jeffrey banged home a rebound on a scramble in front of the Bulldogs net. Colin Kim and Cameron Young had the assists.

The Wolves travelled to London late Sunday afternoon determined to put in a better effort against the West London Hawks. The Wolves got on the board first when David Parker played the puck back to the point and Lukas Marscheutz rifled a blistering slap shot through a maze of players and into the back of the net. Second assist went to Owen Fenton with the nice pass to Parker. The Wolves went ahead by 2 when Matt Buck found some retribution for a hard hit he took along the boards. Colin Kim fed the puck to Cameron Young, who caught Buck streaking down the wing. Buck cut in towards the goal and lifted a shot over the sprawling Hawks goaltender. The Hawks got one back before the end of the period but the Black Attack power play came to life in the 3rd period, scoring 4 unanswered goals when the Hawks took numerous penalties. The Wolves third goal was scored by Colin Kim when he sent a hard wrister on goal that eluded the Hawks goalie. The assist went to Younger on a nice pass to a breaking Kim. Marscheutz got his second of the game on another blistering point shot after he was fed a sweet pass from Fenton. Second assist to Parker for his work in the corner digging the puck out and sending it to Fenton. Parker then notched his first goal of the game when he tipped a point shot from Cole Schirmmacher after receiving a cross ice D to D pass on the power play from Kim. The Wolves final goal again arose from use of the D on the power play. Schirmmacher sent in a point shot that deflected off Ben Hagen and was picked up by Jeffrey and quickly wrapped into the corner of the net for a Wolves 6-1 victory. Next up for the Wolves is a tilt with the Stratford Warriors on Saturday.

The Wolves went ahead by 2 when Matt Buck found some retribution for a hard hit he took along the boards. Colin Kim fed the puck to Cameron Young, who caught Buck streaking down the wing. Buck cut in towards the goal and lifted a shot over the sprawling Hawks goaltender. The Hawks got one back before the end of the period but the Black Attack power play came to life in the 3rd period, scoring 4 unanswered goals when the Hawks took numerous penalties. The Wolves third goal was scored by Colin Kim when he sent a hard wrister on goal that eluded the Hawks goalie. The assist went to Younger on a nice pass to a breaking Kim. Marscheutz got his second of the game on another blistering point shot after he was fed a sweet pass from Fenton. Second assist to Parker for his work in the corner digging the puck out and sending it to Fenton. Parker then notched his first goal of the game when he tipped a point shot from Cole Schirmmacher after receiving a cross ice D to D pass on the power play from Kim. The Wolves final goal again arose from use of the D on the power play. Schirmmacher sent in a point shot that deflected off Ben Hagen and was picked up by Jeffrey and quickly wrapped into the corner of the net for a Wolves 6-1 victory. Next up for the Wolves is a tilt with the Stratford Warriors on Saturday.

PLAYER PROFILE: #19 Matthew Buck

Matt Buck is a power forward who wears #19 for Waterloo Minor Pee wee Black. Known to his mates as "Bucky", he has a reputation around the league for his wicked wrist shot and crash the net style of play. Bucky's height and strength on the ice remind fellow players of another great power forward Rick Nash, who Bucky has obviously modeled his hockey skills after. Bucky's other sport of choice is baseball, where he is an accomplished first baseman who likes to play long ball when he's up to bat! Rumour has it the Buck family eats a lot of tacos and brownies to feed his long ball habit!

Matt is a grade 6 student at N.A. MacEachern Public School where he excels in math. When he isn't playing sports, Bucky likes to play Star Wars Clone Wars 3 and listen to Rusted from the Rain by Billy Talent but his favourite musical group is Green Day. Bucky's trip of choice is a week at Disneyworld in Florida. He hopes to convince his dad that his next car purchase should be a Lamborghini! Good luck on your convincing Bucky and congrats on 2 great games this weekend!

SCOREBOARD
Waterloo	1
Burlington Bulldogs	3
Waterloo	6
London Hawks	1